

1921 CONVENTION OF ALPHA CHI RHO

Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, February 17th, 18th and 19th

LAST CALL!

JOY, JAZZ AND JOLLY FELLOWSHIP

We GUARANTEE you the time of your life—or longer.

The festivities are going to be the most festive, the business sessions the busiest—

And

Everybody is going to be everybody else's best lil' pal. We are going to look after that. The minute you register the MIXERS COMMITTEE will start you off. In a jiffy or two you will know everybody by their nicknames.

After that when you want anything all you need do is ask for it. There will be an Information and Service Bureau that will get you positively everything—or almost so. Hotel accommodations, best seats at the theatre, tables at restaurants or roof gardens, railroad tickets or sleepers, guides or messengers, even partners for the dances—all you need do is speak right up and we will do the rest.

Now as for the program:

OPENING GUNS

On the Waldorf Roof Thursday evening: Something different in the way of entertainment—a prearranged program that will positively be presented consisting of movies—quartettes—band. Special stunts by near-by Chapters. Smokes a-plenty and refreshments. Yes! (Don't ask questions).

MUSICAL PLAY FOLLOWED BY A DANCE

Friday evening on the Waldorf Roof: Brother Obermeyer, the budding theatrical genius of Phi Omega, has written a play, to be presented by Henderson's All Star Cast, that will tickle your ribs. It will put "Irene" and "Ziegfeld's Follies" in the shade! And then a dance afterwards lasting until 2:00 A. M. The truly wonderful and unequalled Waldorf-Astoria Orchestra will furnish the music. If you have never heard them, step into any Victrola shop and listen to one of their records. Aren't they great! Of course your wife won't miss this so bring her along. If you haven't a wife, don't worry—there are plenty of beauties here just dying to dance.

TEA DANSANT

Saturday afternoon on the Waldorf Roof: A real dance, with emphasis on the dance. The Waldorf Orchestra will play again—so "nuff sed." Another chance to display your ability at the light fantastic.

AND THE BANQUET

In the Grand Ball Room of the Waldorf, Saturday evening: A real feed—with the soft pedal on oratory. Our Committee is courageous. "Ken" Webb will be the toastmaster with two five minute speeches by the best orators in the Fraternity—"Bill" McClellan and "Dick" Fox. A real live orchestra will keep you happy, together with a bunch of surprises in the way of entertainment to give you the time of your life. When it's over you'll "yell for more and hate to go home."

FOR THE BETTER HALF—PRESENT AND TO BE

A Committee of Wives and Sweethearts has prepared a program that will leave no idle moments for visiting ladies. In addition to the Play, Dance and Tea Dansant, there will be shopping and sightseeing trips, luncheons, a dinner and theatre party. Speaking of shopping, there are more and finer stores in New York than are to be found elsewhere on the globe. Here are the latest foreign and domestic fashions and the most alluring and genuine bargains. Bring Her along, too. She deserves it, and besides you'll have a better time.

ACCOMMODATIONS

All our reservations at the Waldorf were filled on February 2nd. We have reserved fifty additional rooms at the McAlpin—a half block from the Waldorf and under same management. A number of these rooms consist of two rooms with bath between and two single beds in each room. New York Hotels are crowded, but we will positively take care of you if you send in your card below at once.

HEAVY DOPE!

Take out your Waterman right now and send in your acceptance for yourself and friend wife. We would like to run the whole Convention free to everyone (we are giving a royal party free at the Smoker) but it costs money to run such an affair. You know how it is. A little contribution will help a lot also. The Convention Chairman has bet "Jim" Wales a dinner that everyone will contribute at least a dollar and perhaps a little more, especially if you can't come. Every cent collected will be spent on the Convention.

WHAT TO DO WITH THE CARD BELOW

Fill this card in right away—before you forget it. If you can't possibly come, write us about it. Let us know how sorry you are and we'll send you the "Convention Daily." (That was supposed to be a secret, too.) But, of course you are coming. Fine! So fill in everything and help the hungry Chairman to get that dinner. Charge it to "Investment" not to "Expense."

We are anxious to see you at Convention, so fill in the card below and send it to Ernie Cobb by return mail.

1921 Convention Committee,

J. H. KING, Chairman,
85 Liberty St., New York City.

P. S. If you have already sent in your card, please forget this.

Put Me Down For

Check here

Cash enclosed

☐ Smoker, Thursday evening, Feb. 17. Free

☐ Play and Dance, Friday evening, Feb. 18.

Tickets $2.50 couple

$1.50 single

☐ Tea Dansant Tickets $2.00 couple

☐ Banquet Tickets $4.50

☐ Contribution (It's a pleasure to help).....

Total enclosed (a Ten Spot covers everything, but we'll accept more).....

Name Address Chapter

Send this card to

Ernest B. Cobb, 110 William St., New York City
in the enclosed envelope.

Check Here

☐ Reserve accommodations beginning.....

☐ Double Room (McAlpin) without bath, 6.00 up.

☐ Double Room (McAlpin) with bath, 8.00 up.

☐ Two rooms with bath between for 4 people, 16.00 up.

☐ Room at outside hotel,

☐ Reserve tickets for ladies' theatre party (Saturday while we are at the Banquet).

☐ Remarks (what can Service Bureau do for you?)

.....

.....

.....

1921 CONVENTION OF ALPHA CHI RHO

Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York, February 17th, 18th and 19th

GOOD FELLOWSHIP AND THE TIME OF YOUR LIFE

This Convention will be one of the outstanding milestones in our existence.

Every effort of the 1921 Convention Committee will be concentrated on making sure that you know everyone attending—(no lonesome boys hanging around this year)—and that you have a bang-up fine time from the minute you register until you are aboard a train bound for home again. To further these ends, there will be a real live "Mixers Committee" to see that everyone meets you. There will be an Information and Service Bureau that will fix you up with anything you need (except money). They will get you hotel accommodations, best seats at any theatre, tables at restaurants or roof gardens, railroad tickets and sleepers from New York to anywhere; arrange for private shopping or sightseeing trips, furnish guides and messengers, provide a partner for the dances—in fact anything you want or need to make your visit pleasant. What can they do for you?

NOW FOR THE FUN:—Light up the old pipe or grab a "Fat" and read this over carefully.

OPENING GUNS

On the Waldorf Roof Thursday evening: Something different in the way of entertainment—a prearranged program that will positively be presented consisting of movies—quartettes—band. Special stunts by near-by Chapters. Smokes a-plenty and refreshments. Yes! (Don't ask questions).

MUSICAL PLAY FOLLOWED BY A DANCE

Friday evening on the Waldorf Roof: Brother Obermeyer, the budding theatrical genius of Phi Omega, has written a Musical Fantasy, to be presented by Walter Funke's All Star Cast, that will tickle your ribs. It will put "Irene" and "Ziegfeld's Follies" in the shade! And then a dance afterwards lasting until 2:00 A. M. The truly wonderful and unequalled Waldorf-Astoria Orchestra will furnish the music. If you have never heard them, step into any Victrola shop and listen to one of their records. Aren't they great! Of course your wife won't miss this so bring her along. If you haven't a wife, don't worry—there are plenty of beauties here just dying to dance.

TEA DANSANT

Saturday afternoon on the Waldorf Roof: A real dance, with emphasis on the dance. The Waldorf Orchestra will play again—so "nuff sed." Another chance to display your ability at the light fantastic.

AND THE BANQUET

In the Grand Ball Room of the Waldorf, Saturday evening: A real feed—with the soft pedal on oratory. Our Committee is courageous. "Ken" Webb will be the toastmaster with two five minute speeches by the best orators in the Fraternity—"Bill" McClellan and "Dick" Fox. A real live orchestra will keep you happy, together with a bunch of surprises in the way of entertainment to give you the time of your life. When it's over you'll "yell for more and hate to go home."

FOR THE BETTER HALF—PRESENT AND TO BE

A Committee of Wives and Sweethearts has prepared a program that will leave no idle moments for visiting ladies. In addition to the Play, Dance and Tea Dansant, there will be shopping and sightseeing trips, luncheons, a dinner and theatre party. Speaking of shopping, there are more and finer stores in New York than are to be found elsewhere on the globe. Here are the latest foreign and domestic fashions and the most alluring and genuine bargains. Bring Her along, too. She deserves it, and besides you'll have a better time.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Rooms have been reserved at the Waldorf but there are lots of other hotels. A room can be had for almost anything you want to pay, from $2.00 up, at other hotels. New York Brothers will house all undergraduates free and they may be able to care for a few graduates. First come, first served. Sign up early. We suggest clubbing together with three or four in a room. Let the Service Bureau fix you up.

HEAVY DOPE!

Take out your Waterman right now and send in your acceptance for yourself and friend wife. We would like to run the whole Convention free to everyone (we are giving a royal party free at the Smoker) but it costs money to run such an affair. You know how it is. A little contribution will help a lot also. The Convention Chairman has bet "Jim" Wales a dinner that everyone will contribute at least a dollar and perhaps a little more, especially if you can't come. Every cent collected will be spent on the Convention.

WHAT TO DO WITH THE CARD BELOW

Fill this card in right away—before you forget it. If you can't possibly come, write us about it. Let us know how sorry you are and we'll send you the "Convention Daily." (That was supposed to be a secret, too.) But, of course you are coming. Fine! So fill in everything and help the hungry Chairman to get that dinner. Charge it to "Investment" not to "Expense."

We are anxious to see you at Convention.

As Togo says "Hoping you are the same,"

1921 Convention Committee,
J. H. KING, Chairman,
85 Liberty St., New York City.

Put Me Down For

Check here

Cash enclosed

☐ Smoker, Thursday evening, Feb. 17. Free

☐ Play and Dance, Friday evening, Feb. 18.

Tickets $2.50 couple

$1.50 single

☐ Tea Dansant Tickets $2.00 couple

☐ Banquet Tickets $4.50

☐ Contribution (It's a pleasure to help).....

Total enclosed (a Ten Spot covers everything)

Check Here

☐ Reserve accommodations beginning

☐ Single Room (Waldorf) without bath, $4.00 up.

☐ Single Room (Waldorf) with bath, 6.00 up.

☐ Double Room (Waldorf) without bath, 6.00 up.

☐ Double Room (Waldorf) with bath, 8.00 up.

☐ Two rooms with bath between for 4 people, 14.00 up.

☐ Room at outside hotel,

☐ Reserve tickets for ladies' theatre party (Saturday while we are at the Banquet).

☐ Remarks (what can Service Bureau do for you?)

Name Address Chapter

Send this card to

Ernest B. Cobb, 110 William St., New York City

in the enclosed envelope.